

Greetings!

Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

Greetings to all! It's a new year and we know God is at work! Would you please pray for my assistant, Troy Gnuschke, who is heading out to Africa for seminars. He will be doing two ten-day trainings in our Level 3 program, one in Tanzania and the other in Uganda. This level 3 is broken into three ten days cycles where we bring a small number of key pastors into a conference center and train them in Old and New Testament overviews and go through three book studies in which each participant has to outline and chart. They then must prepare a sermon everyday and never know when they will be called on to preach text. They are critiqued each time. After preaching several times, they really begin to understand how to teach through a text systematically. Many of the pastors who have gone through this training have told us they will never preach the way they used to again! So please lift up Troy as he leaves on Monday. He currently is ill and needs a quick recovery. Thanks – Dan

PS I was suppose to be in India for the next two weeks doing conferences, but the Indian consulate denied my visa application we think because I had been in Pakistan recently and the two don't get along.

Blessings – Dan
