Agreement for all Applicants

I certify that I am in agreement with the doctrinal statement and standard of conduct of Morningstar Christian Chapel. If there are any disagreements, please explain on a separate sheet of paper and return with the completed application.

I certify that answers given herein are true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

What We Believe (Doctrinal Statement)

We Believe in the Bible as the inspired, inerrant Word of God by which all things are given to us pertaining to life and godliness (2 Peter 1:3). We, therefore place a great priority on knowing God through the study of His Word.

We Believe that we have been created for God's pleasure (Revelation 4:11) and as His Church are to worship Him as an expression of our love (Psalm 95:6). Our worship must be spiritual (John 4:24) and is expressed through our singing, praying, giving, and obedience to His Lordship in our lives. We look for His love in our lives as the supreme manifestation that we are truly worshiping Him.

We Believe in the fellowship (koinonia) of all true believers in Christ (I John 1:3, I Corinthians 1:9). We place a high priority on the gathering of the Body of Christ together to provoke one another to love and good works (Hebrews 10:24). We understand the importance of body ministry, each individual doing their part for the whole body, and thus every need being met.

We Believe in the need for discipleship and training for the perfecting of the saints and for the work of the ministry (Ephesians 4:12). The church has been called to go out and make disciples. Following Jesus and serving Him requires both sacrifice and commitment (Luke 9:59-62). Training is being equipped and not just educated and informed.

Morningstar Christian Chapel has been formed as a fellowship of believers in the Lord Jesus Christ. Our supreme desire is to know Christ and be conformed to His image by the power of the Holy Spirit.

We are not a denominational fellowship, nor are we opposed to denominations as such, only their over-emphasis of the doctrinal differences that have led to the division in the body of Christ.

We believe that the only true basis for Christian Fellowship is His (Agape) love, which is greater than any differences we possess and without which we have no right to call ourselves Christians.

Standard of Conduct

Morningstar Christian Chapel is committed to the principles of Christian living found in the Bible and holds that these biblical standards are vital to our individual and corporate relationships. In this light, and given the clear biblical imperative for spiritual self-discipline, the church has established these "standards of conduct" to be observed and upheld, by all members of the Morningstar Christian Chapel staff.

Consistent with the example and command of Jesus Christ, we believe that life must be lived to the glory of God, with love for God and for the body of Christ. Being indwelt by the Holy Spirit, we strive to walk by the Spirit, "crucifying the flesh with its passions and desires" (Galatians 5:24). To this end, the staff of Morningstar Christian Chapel is not to engage in activities, which Scripture forbids. Such activities include, but are not limited to, dishonesty, thievery, fornication, adultery, homosexual practice, drunkenness and unscriptural divorce. Scripture also condemns other "deeds of the flesh" such as covetousness, jealousy, pride and lust-sins which the maturing Christian should put off, and replace with "fruit of the spirit": love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control (e.g., Luke 10:27; Galatians 2:20, 5:14-24; Ephesians 2:3; 1Corinthians 6:9-10).

As a church, Morningstar Christian Chapel also recognizes the responsibility of its Board of Directors, Pastoral and non-Pastoral staff to provide examples of maturing Christian character, conduct, and attitude at all times. Therefore, as maturing Christians, the staff of Morningstar Christian Chapel will strive for the holiness of God (1 Peter 1:13-19), and love Him with all our heart, soul, and mind (Matthew 22:37). In addition, we are called to love our friends and neighbors as God has loved us (Matthew 22:39; 1 John 4:7-11). We will achieve this calling by walking by the power of the Holy Spirit and avoiding sins clearly forbidden in Scripture (Galatians 5:16-21; 1 Corinthians 6:9-11; Ephesians 5:1-14). Also, we will pursue the fruit of the Spirit from our Lord and with one another (Galatians 5:22-24).

When the Bible is not clear regarding a specific behavior, we will be guided by our desire to glorify God in our bodies as temples of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 6:19-20), and will discern if any of our brothers or sisters in Christ would stumble in their faith (1 Corinthians 8; Romans 14). If our Lord is not glorified or another Christian is harmed or offended by our behavior, then we will freely abstain from that activity. We know that many behaviors are lawful, but not all are profitable (1 Corinthians 10:23-33). Therefore, we will constantly be teachable regarding those activities where the Bible is not clear and will evaluate them in light of our pursuit of holiness and love for our Lord and each other.

These standards apply to the Board of Directors and all staff of Morningstar Christian Chapel. Morningstar Christian Chapel, therefore, reserves the right to discipline or dismiss any employee who, in its judgment, does not conform to these conduct standards or to other expressed principles, policies, programs, and expectations of the church governing employee conduct.

I certify that answers given herein are true and complete to the best of my knowledge.
