

Real love and real fellowship go hand in hand. One is dependent upon the other. As God loved us in a practical way, so we must love one another. I John 3:18 tells us to love one another not only with words, but with action and truth. Fellowship means sharing something with another person in a deep way. This study will help you to see both the importance of fellowship to our spiritual lives, as well as our responsibilities in Christian fellowship.

READY TO GO!

Let's begin by asking God to really teach us through this study. Luke tells us in his Gospel (24:45) that Jesus will open our understanding to comprehend the Scriptures.

Before beginning your study please read the following passages of Scripture: I Corinthians 12:12-27; Acts 2:41-47; Romans 14:1-11; Romans 15:1-7; Ephesians 2:14-22; I John 1:3-4.

Answer the following questions using your own words.

- 1) The Bible is filled with instructions about our relationship with other believers. Below is a list of scriptures relating to our actions "one to another". Read each verse and then write out the instruction given on the space provided.
